

Sarah was a very beautiful woman. She was married to Abraham who owned lots of sheep and cattle, donkeys and camels. They had many servants working for them. But Abraham and Sarah had no children.

Abraham and Sarah lived in the city called Ur in the land of Mesopotamia.

One day God spoke to Abraham. 'Leave your home country and go to another land. I will show you where to go.'

God made a special promise to Abraham. 'I will make your family into a great nation. I will bless you. All the peoples in the world will be blessed through you.'

Sarah and Abraham and other members of the family set out on the long journey.
