

CONTENTS

Foreword by John MacArthur .....	7
Introduction .....	9
1. Boyhood and Conversion .....	13
2. Spiritual Awakening at Yale .....	25
3. College Conflict .....	33
4. Awaiting God's Direction.....	41
5. Licensed to Preach.....	51
6. Appointed as a Missionary.....	59
7. A Start among the Indians.....	71
8. Timely Encouragement and Fresh Challenges .....	79
9. Wintertime Studies and Reflections.....	91
10. 'Resolved to Go on Still with the Indian Affair'.....	101
11. Summer at the Forks.....	113
12. First Susquehanna Journey .....	123
13. Hope and Despair .....	131
14. Seeking a Missionary Colleague .....	141
15. A Difficult and Disappointing Itineration.....	149
16. The Spirit's Stirring.....	159
17. Days of God's Power .....	169
18. Ministering Where Satan Reigns.....	181
19. Progress of a Remarkable Work of Grace.....	189
20. The Continued Stirring.....	197

21. Conviction, Conversions and Opposition.....	205
22. Ministering to Exhaustion .....	215
23. Preparing a New Settlement.....	223
24. 'One Continued Flame for God' .....	233
25. Invaluable Insights concerning Indian Ministry .....	245
26. Final Susquehanna Journey.....	255
27. Final Ministry among the Indians.....	265
28. Illness at Elizabethtown .....	271
29. Near Death at Boston.....	279
30. Temporary Recovery.....	287
31. Finishing the Course.....	295
32. Ongoing Influence .....	307
Appendix: Brainerd's Depression.....	315
Further Reading.....	317

