

Jericho's walls were so high, and so wide, you couldn't break them down.

The people of Jericho shut their gates. 'We're safe,' they thought. 'The Israelites can't get in.'