

From the Author

Jesus has a great care for children. 'Let the children come to me,' he told his disciples. 'Don't forbid them.'

Jesus wants children today to come to him. Those with a responsibility for children should do all they can to tell them about Jesus the Saviour.

My prayer is that children will learn about Jesus, the Son of God, in this little book. It gives a brief outline of Jesus' life and work.

The text on each page is part of a longer story which would be well worth reading with your child.

Jesus' prayer in John 17 tells us how important it is to know him. 'This is life eternal that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.'

Carine Mackenzie

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Jesus Christ is God the Son from all eternity. He is also called the Word of God. He became a man, born into this world, but he never stopped being God the Son. This is an amazing mystery for us to believe and cause us to worship.

Matthew 1:23

Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which means, 'God with us'.

Jesus' birth was unique. He had a human mother, Mary. She conceived the baby, Jesus, by the power of God the Holy Spirit.

The special name 'Immanuel' means 'God with us.' Jesus was truly a human like us, but he was also truly God.

