

Jesus told a story about a great wedding feast. A prince was getting married. The king sent out his servants to gather in the guests, but the guests were unwilling to come. How strange! There was going to be delicious food and great fun but they still said, 'No'.

Some ignored the invitation. Others made excuses.

'I've just bought a field. I can't come.' 'I've just bought some oxen. I can't come.' 'I've just got married. I can't come either.'

The king sent out his servants to invite other people instead and when there were still spaces left he invited even more. Those who said, 'yes' were welcomed with open arms. Soon the feast was filled with people.

The guests were even offered special wedding clothes to wear! What a treat!

