

THE NEW THEMATIC CONCORDANCE

For the use of Ministers, Missionaries, Teachers and Christian Workers

Edited with additional material by
DANIEL MORRISON MILLER

'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES.' (JOHN 5:39)

FURTHER REVISED BY
GEOFFREY STONIER

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

Copyright © Geoffrey Stonier 2004

ISBN 1-85792-931-4

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

Published in 2004,
Reprinted 2005

by

Christian Focus Publications,
Geanies House, Fearn, Ross-shire,
IV20 1TW, Scotland

www.christianfocus.com

Cover Design by Alister MacInnes

Printed and bound by Norhaven, Denmark

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form, by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise without the prior permission of the publisher or a license permitting restricted copying. In the U.K. such licenses are issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency, 90 Tottenham Court Road, London W1P 9HE.

Editor's Preface

The plan of this book is to provide topical outlines of a variety of major themes for the guidance of students and workers engaged in Christian service at home and in all parts of the world. The study of the Bible topically is one of the most interesting and perhaps one of the most fruitful methods. The value of these outlines to the busy Christian worker and missionary overseas is incalculable.

The outlines provide the basic material for specific subjects, or for a series of studies under such subjects as The Gospel, The Holy Spirit, Christian Life and Service - and a host of other matters. The value of The Topical Bible Concordance to Christian workers cannot be overstressed, providing as it does a balanced framework, skilfully prepared by master builders of the Christian faith.

In many foreign countries, nationals are often without either a concordance or a Bible containing references, and here is a compilation of vital subjects that cannot but give direction and inspiration, and provide sure foundations, for a healthy and useful Christian upbuilding.

The original manuscript of this volume made its appearance over one hundred and fifty years ago, dispensing blessing and giving spiritual direction to multitudes. This up-to-date issue, slightly revised and edited to meet present-day requirements, is sent forth with the prayer that, under God, it may fulfil its mission of goodwill and sound teaching to the Christians of this generation.

Daniel Morrison Miller

A Word of Commendation

When I first started preaching in my youth and inexperience, I fell back constantly upon two books: Thompson's Chain Reference Bible and Miller's Topical Concordance. Indeed, there are thousands of sermons to be found in this Concordance on nearly all gospel themes imaginable.

There are also some very valuable sections at the end of many of the Topics by way of example. This helps the preacher to reach into all parts of the Bible to find practical examples and applications, even for today. This Concordance is just as it claims - a concordance and not a commentary. Yet, it is more than that, for it is a small book of theology. Under each topic, you will find many headings and Bible verses arranged in such a way that they lend themselves easily to become the 'points' of a sermon.

So valuable did Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the greatest of all Baptist preachers, find this Topical Concordance that he commended its use to his preachers and students by including it whole in his re-issue of Matthew's Henry's Commentary on the New Testament. Here it is again in a modern dress! It is an essential tool for busy preachers.

Rev. Dr. Geoffrey Stonier.
(International Director, Preachers' Help)

Note that in order to save space, reference is often made to a single verse, although the matter referred to may be contained in several connected verses. Therefore, make reference to the context, which is vitally important.